KPMG Tax Insights and KPMG Tax Learnings

NBR expects businesses to remain compliant with the provisions of VAT law - from the timely application for VAT registration to ensuring the correct VAT treatment is applied to all transactions and ensuring VAT returns are filed accurately and in a timely manner. Any non-compliance is likely to be met with the application of administrative fines and penalties.

The Bahrain VAT law and executive regulations impose different administrative fines and penalties depending upon the nature of non-compliance by businesses. The KPMG Bahrain tax team has summarised the various offences and corresponding administrative fines and penalties in its recently released Tax Insights.
